MR. K. A. NARAYANA PILLAI (Todupuzha cum Devicolam): May I know the nature and the result of the action taken?

MR. C. V. CHANDRASEKHARAN (Ag. Director of Public Instruction): In two cases, the report of the Divisional Inspector was accepted. In two cases, the junior hand was relieved and the senior most person in the waiting list was put in by the Director of Public Instruction. One case is still under enquiry.

MR. K. A. NARAYANA PILLAI (Todupuzha cum Devicolam): What was the reason for the Divisional Inspector to relieve the seniors and appoint juniors?

MR. C. V. CHANDRASEKHARAN (Ag. Director of Public Instruction): These complaints arose, Sir, during a period when the waiting list was held in abeyance. The Government first ordered that the waiting list should be abolished; and subsequently they ordered that it should be retained. It was during the interval between the two orders that all Divisional Inspectors made appointments more with reference to the qualifications than with reference to the acting service.

MR. K. A. NARAYANA PILLAI (Todupuzha cum Devicolam): Am I to understand that there was no waiting list in the Divisional Inspector's Office in 1110?

MR. C. V. CHANDRASEKHARAN (Ag. Director of Public Instruction): There was. But the interval was only for a few months when the list was not followed.
